

Oxford Real Estate Programme – Kuwait Date: 10 – 13 February 2020

Real estate makes up around 50% of the world's assets and it is crucial to the success of global economies and societies.

In the turbulent global financial markets, an understanding of real estate is vital for senior executives, investors and policy makers worldwide.

During the 4 day programme, you will:

Review the latest developments, opportunities and risks in real estate investments

Gain an understanding of real estate user and capital markets

Analyse technology, urbanisation, demographics, globalisation and macroeconomic trends

Design a business case for a real estate investment and present it to potential industry funders

Benefits:

- Working with Andrew Baum, Professor of Practice, the recognised academic and industry expert
- An opportunity to re-evaluate your strategy for the next five years
- Access to our international networks across the real estate sector
- Reinvigorate leaders with a clearer business vision
- Insights into emerging market challenges from experts
- Building working relationships with other key players on the programme

Date: 10 – 13 February 2020
Time: 8am – 3pm (breaks included)
Location: Kuwait Radisson Blu Hotel

Registration deadline:
5 January 2020

Apply new strategic thinking to real estate investments and businesses

Andrew Baum, Professor of Practice

Andrew leads the Real Estate – Kuwait programme. Andrew is chairman of Property Funds Research and Newcore Property Management, a real estate fund manager focussed on alternatives, and advisor to several property organisations. He was hired as the first director of property research for Prudential in 1987. Since that time he has spent part of his time as an academic and part of his time in business, developing an expertise in property finance, property development, property funds, proptech and international real estate investment.

Andrew leads on the Future of Real Estate Initiative, a four-year industry – supported research programme focused on the 2025-30 impact of innovation and technology on the global real estate industry.

Who should apply?

We welcome participants from real estate companies, REITs, fund and wealth managers, family offices, banks, service providers and insurance/pension funds, endowments and sovereign wealth funds.

This programme is suitable for senior executives, such as vice presidents, directors, chief financial officers, fund and asset managers, legal professionals and consultants.

‘Real estate simplified and optimised resulting in an enriching experience to the entire attendees.’

Vivek Naidu CEO, Legend Estate Pvt Ltd

Programme Themes:

- The evolving real estate universe
- Building a global portfolio
- Asset allocation
- Real estate debt
- Real estate megaforges and proptech
- REIT's and real estate funds
- International real estate investing

Selection process

Must be employed only by a private company in Kuwait

Provide an updated CV reflecting current role and responsibilities

Minimum five years of work experience and English proficiency

All applicants will undergo a blind review process by a selection committee. Applicants will be assessed based on experience, area of expertise, and comparative merit. Any late or incomplete submissions will be automatically disqualified.

To register

To register for this programme, please go to:
<http://kfas.org/oxford2020>

Contact KFAS:
Enterprise Learning & Human Development
training@kfas.org.kw

Tel: +965 22278100

Open Programmes have retained the number one position for the fifth consecutive year in the Financial Times Executive Education Rankings

Registration deadline:
5 January 2020